

Piping Supervisor

Position: Piping Supervisor

Employment Type: Permanent Full-time

Location: 10 Jalan Samulun, Singapore 629124

Responsibilities:

- Design and produce single line diagrams of electrical/instrument system, and determine the interface/termination diagrams in accordance with equipment specifications.
- To size cables and breakers according to related rules and regulations.
- To size electrical equipment capacity e.g. switchgears, transformers, navigation and fire & gas systems.
- Prepare material take off for bulk material orders of power and control cables, cable trays and ladders and various ship electrical equipment and systems according to project contract specifications.
- Prepare electrical switchgear equipment installation and room arrangement/layout, lighting layout, LV/MV cableway plan, LV/MV cables routing plan and cable schedules.
- Prepare electrical installation construction standard according to IEC/IEEE shipbuilding practice or international standard.
- Coordinate/execute contract specification requirements and production inputs into engineering drawing/document.
- Provide progress reporting and schedule management of engineering deliverables.
- Attend Vessel Safety Coordination Committee Meeting (VSCC), coordinate with section head, problem solving/trouble-shooting on site, supervise and update the progress, punch list clearance, follow up with the commissioning team to hand over systems.

Requirements:

- Minimum 3 to 5 years of experience working in a marine/offshore industry either with shipyards or marine equipment manufacturers
- Diploma or Bachelor's Degree in Electrical Engineering, Naval Architecture or Offshore & Marine Engineering
- Candidates with suitable/extensive experience will be considered

Interested applicants to email your resumes stating expected salary and earliest possible start date.

We regret to inform that only suitable applicants will be contacted for an interview.